

Donation
Memorial Gallery

“Just as there is a war memorial in every park, every hospital should have a donation memorial. It’s a small way to say to donors - you are not forgotten, and thank you.”

Dale Gardiner, Clinical Lead for Organ Donation

Donor Family Network National Memorial National Arboretum, Staffordshire

Isle of Mann

A photograph of the Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum in Glasgow, featuring a large wooden organ donor sculpture and a bronze relief of organ donors. The building is a grand, ornate structure with multiple stories, arched windows, and a prominent entrance archway. The sky is clear and blue.

Kelvingrove Art Gallery and Museum, Glasgow

The lowest was designed and built in recognition of Scotland's many Organ Donors and their families whose support over the years has transformed the lives of many hundreds of people waiting for a life saving transplant.

Nottingham University Hospital

Wrexham

Ysbyty Gwynedd
Bangor

Scottish National Memorial, Edinburgh

Wolverhampton

Kings Mill Hospital