NHS Blood and Transplant (Gwaed a Thrawsblaniadau'r GIG) (Wales) Directions 2005

The National Assembly for Wales, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 16D(1), 17 and 126(4) of the National Health Service Act 1977(1), makes the following Directions—

Citation, commencement, interpretation and application

1.—(1) The title of these Directions is the NHS Blood and Transplant (Gwaed a Thrawsblaniadau'r GIG) (Wales) Directions 2005 and they come into force on 1 October 2005.

(2) In these Directions—

“the Act” (“y Ddeddf”) means the National Health Service Act 1977;

“the Assembly” (“y Cynulliad”) means the National Assembly for Wales;

- (1) 1977 c.49; section 16D was substituted by section 12(1) of the Health Act 1999 (c.8) (“the 1999 Act”) and amended by sections 1(3) and 3(1) and (2) of, and paragraphs 1 and 6(a) of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to, the National Health Service Reform and Health Care Professions Act 2002 (c.17) (“the 2002 Act”); section 17 was substituted by section 12(1) of the 1999 Act and amended by section 1(3) of, and paragraphs 1 and 7 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to, the 2002 Act and section 67(1) of, and paragraphs 5(1) and (3) of Part 1 of Schedule 5 to, the Health and Social Care Act 2001 (c.15) (“the 2001 Act”); section 126(4) was amended by section 65(2) of the National Health Service and Community Care Act 1990 (c.19), by paragraph 37(6) of Schedule 4 to the 1999 Act, by paragraph 5(13)(b) of Part 1 of Schedule 5 to the 2001 Act, by sections 6(3)(c) and 37(1) of, and paragraphs 1 and 10(a) of Schedule 8 to, the 2002 Act and by section 184 of, and paragraph 38 of Schedule 11 and Part 4 of Schedule 14 to, the Health and Social Care (Community Health and Standards) Act 2003 (c.43). The functions of the Secretary of State under sections 16D, 17 (except in some cases not relevant to these directions), and 126(3) and (4) are, so far as exercisable in relation to Wales, transferred to the National Assembly for Wales by article 2(a) of the National Assembly for Wales (Transfer of Functions) Order 1999, S.I. 1999/672 (“the 1999 Order”) as amended by section 66(4) to (6) of the 1999 Act.
- (2) Established by NHS Blood and Transplant (Gwaed a Thrawsblaniadau'r GIG) (Establishment and Constitution) Order 2005, S.I. 2005/2529.

“Schemes” (“Cynlluniau”) means the following Organ Donor Sharing Schemes⁽¹⁾:

- (a) Operating Principles for Pancreas Transplant Units in the UK, prepared by the UKT Kidney and Pancreas Advisory Group, first published in August 2003;
- (b) Operating Principles for renal Transplant Units in the UK, prepared by the UKT Kidney and Pancreas Advisory Group, first published in May 1999; blood and stem cells and treatments depending on or requiring their use (including, for example, reagent preparation and provision, patient pathology and therapeutic services, histocompatibility and immunogenetic services, platelet and granulocyte immunology);

- (e) to promote, by advertising, marketing and otherwise, the donation of blood and stem cells, with a view in particular to maintaining an adequate supply of blood and stem cells;
- (f) to prepare, store and distribute plasma fractions and other products for therapeutic, diagnostic and other purposes;
- (g) to promote, through advice and guidance, the appropriate use of blood and stem cells (having regard in particular to the need to promote the effective use of blood) and, as it considers appropriate, to provide a reference laboratory for donors and patients; and
- (h) to establish and manage a register of blood and bone marrow donors and any associated services necessary for the treatment of patients.

Functions in relation to tissues

3. In order to promote or secure the effective supply of tissue for the purposes of the health service, the Assembly directs NHSBT—

- (a) to provide a collection, storage and delivery service for tissues;
- (b) to provide a screening, testing and processing service for the preparation of tissues;
- (c) to conduct or commission research into the uses of and development of tissues;
- (d) to provide diagnostic and other services in connection with the collection and use of tissues and treatments depending on or requiring their use (including, for example, patient pathology and therapeutic services);
- (e) to promote, by advertising, marketing and otherwise, the donation of tissues, with a view in particular to maintaining an adequate supply of tissues;
- (f) to promote, through advice and guidance, the appropriate use of tissues and, as it considers appropriate, to provide a reference laboratory for donors and patients.

Functions in relation to the transplantation of organs and tissues

4.—(1) In order to promote or secure the effective transplantation of organs and tissues for the purposes of the health service, the Assembly directs NHSBT—

- (a) to provide an organ and tissue matching and allocation service, having regard to the need to ensure the—
 - (i) maximum and most effective use of organs;
 - (ii) safety of persons and their survival rates; and
 - (iii) equity and integrity of the organ sharing system;
- (b) to maintain a list of persons who are in need of or are considered suitable for an organ or tissue transplant and to determine the criteria for inclusion on such list;
- (c) to consider and advise the Assembly and Welsh NHS bodies on ethical, legal and clinical issues which arise out of the organ and tissue donation and transplantation service;
- (d) to lead the development of donation and transplant standards and monitor the maintenance of such standards by NHS bodies;
- (e) to acquire, record, update and keep information about potential and actual donors and recipients of organs and tissues which are or may be available for transplantation and other related matters, and, having regard to the law relating to data protection and confidentiality, to make such information available;
- (f) to analyse and audit the information acquired, recorded, updated and kept under sub-paragraph (e) above;
- (g) to promote, by advertising, marketing and otherwise, the donation of organs and tissues with a view to maintaining an adequate number of organs and corneas for transplantation;
- (h) to commission organ and cornea donation programmes in the health service;
- (i) to give advice about, or make arrangements for, the transport of organs;
- (j) to secure the provision of such education and training in any matter related to its functions under this paragraph as NHSBT considers appropriate, both to NHS staff and others;

- (k) to conduct or commission such research in connection with the field of organ donation and transplantation as NHSBT considers appropriate; and
 - (l) to work within agreed reciprocal arrangements with other established organ exchange organisations in other countries, for the exchange of organs, where appropriate.
- (2) For the purposes of paragraph (1)(a), NHSBT may—
- (a) match and allocate organs and tissues from outside Wales; and
 - (b) to the extent that NHSBT carries out an equivalent service in relation to England, Scotland or Northern Ireland, in carrying out the organ and tissue matching and allocation service have regard to the need to ensure the maximum and most effective use of organs and tissues, the safety of persons and their survival rates and the equity and integrity of the organ sharing system.

(3) The list maintained under paragraph (1)(b) may be a list which includes persons in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland provided that the list indicates where the person is from.

(4) The information recorded, updated and kept under sub-paragraph (1)(e) may be recorded, updated, kept, analysed and audited with information about potential and actual donors and recipients of organs and tissues in England, Scotland and Northern Ireland provided that information indicates where the potential or actual donor or recipient is from or to which country the information relates.

Functions in relation to the allocation of human organs for transplantation

5.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2), (3) and (4) of this paragraph, the allocation of organs by NHSBT for the purposes of transplantation shall be in accordance with the Schemes.

(2) No person in Group 2 shall receive an organ for which there is a clinically suitable person in Group 1.

(3) Group 1 shall comprise—

- (a) persons ordinarily resident in the United Kingdom;
- (b) persons who are—
 - (i) members of Her Majesty's United Kingdom Forces serving abroad;
 - (ii) other Crown servants employed in the right of Her Majesty's Government of the United Kingdom having been recruited in the United Kingdom and who are serving abroad;

- (iii) employees, recruited in the United Kingdom, of the British Council or the Commonwealth War Graves Commission and who are employed abroad; or the spouse or any child under the age of nineteen of any person falling within sub-paragraphs (i) to (iii) above;

- (c) persons who are entitled under Regulation (EEC) No 1408/71 and Regulation (EEC) No 574/72 to medical treatment in the United Kingdom;
- (d) persons entitled by virtue of a bilateral reciprocal health agreement or the European Convention on Medical Assistance 1954 to medical treatment in the United Kingdom.

(4) Group 2 shall comprise persons who do not come within the categories of persons listed in Group 1.

General functions of NHSBT

6.—(1) NHSBT may exercise functions under—

- (a) section 23 of the Act (voluntary organisations and other bodies); and
- (b) section 2(b) of the Act (Assembly's general powers as to services) to do anything whatsoever which is calculated to facilitate, or is conducive or incidental to, the discharge of NHSBT's functions.

NHSBT, in performing the functions described in paragraphs 2 to 5 above, may provide advice and make recommendations to the Assembly on any matter connected with its functions.

Exercise of functions

7. NHSBT, in exercising its functions, shall have regard to any guidance issued by the Assembly to the NHSBT.

Land transactions

8.—(1) Subject to sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph, NHSBT may exercise the functions of the Assembly under section 87(1) and (2) of the Act in so far as is necessary to enable it to secure and maintain such accommodation as it requires for the proper discharge of its other functions.

(2) The functions mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) do not include the powers of the Assembly to acquire land compulsorily.

(3) NHSBT may not, without the prior approval of the Assembly, exercise the functions mentioned in sub-paragraph (1) so as to—

- (a) acquire or dispose of any land, or any interest in land, the value of which exceeds £1 million; or
- (b) acquire a leasehold interest where either—
 - the term of the lease is less than one year and the rent payable exceeds £1 million; or
 - the term of the lease is not less than one year and the product of multiplying the number of years in the term by the amount of rent payable in the first year of the term exceeds £1 million.

(4) In sub-paragraph (3)(a) above “value” means the value on a disposal by sale with vacant possession on the open market.

(5) In sub-paragraph (3)(b) above “the term” in relation to a leasehold interest acquired by way of assignment means the unexpired term.

(6) Any function of the Assembly, under section 87 of the Act, must be exercised in accordance with the procedures and instructions for the time being in force and issued by the Department of Health in the document entitled “Estatecode – essential guidance on estates and facilities management”(1), except in so far as such procedures and instructions are inconsistent with these Directions.

(7) Subject to NHSBT obtaining approval as and when required under sub-paragraph (3), where the exercise by NHSBT of any function to which these Directions apply requires—

- (a) the execution under seal of any document, NHSBT is required to execute such document on behalf of the Assembly under its own seal; or
- (b) the execution of a document otherwise than under seal, NHSBT is required to make arrangements for one of its officers who has been duly authorised for the purpose to sign the document for NHSBT on behalf of the Assembly.

Accounts

9.—(1) NHSBT must prepare and keep annual accounts in respect of each financial year which give a true and fair view of the income and expenditure and cash flows of NHSBT for the financial year, and the state of affairs as at the year end.

(1) Copies of this document are available from the website www.dh.gov.uk/estates.

(2) The accounts must be prepared in accordance with—

- (a) the Resource Accounting Manual(1);
- (b) the Department of Health Special Health Authority Manual for Accounts(2);
- (c) any other requests made by the Assembly, except where agreed with the Assembly in which case the exception must be disclosed in the notes to the accounts.

Annual report

10. The Assembly directs NHSBT to produce an annual report in respect of each year from 1 April to 31 March, covering its activities and finances (including officers' remuneration) and to submit that report to the Assembly by no later than 30 September each year, or by such other date as may separately be directed to the NHSBT by the Secretary of State.

Revocation

11. The following directions are revoked—

- (a) The National Blood Authority Accounts Direction given on 19 March 1993;
- (b) The National Blood Authority Directions in relation to Powers of Income Generation given on 29 March 1993;
- (c) The National Blood Authority Directions in relation to Building and Engineering Functions given on 29 March 1993;
