

"Please speak to your male patients about plasma donation."

"Men who have had hospital care for Covid-19 are around six times more likely to have the high antibody levels which might save lives."

For more information and to register to donate visit nhsbt.nhs.uk

Please note: Patients do need to be recovered for 28 days before donating. Receiving convalescent plasma in hospital doesn't exclude you from becoming a plasma donor.

Charlotte Washington
Consultant in Donor Medicine
NHS Blood and Transplant