

Shamik Ghosh

Shamik Ghosh has spent over 17 years in investment banking at senior levels, working as a financial services regulator, as a banker and as a strategy consultant. In his career, he has worked in London, Singapore and Mumbai with HSBC, Nomura, KPMG, Accenture, Lloyds Banking Group, Financial Services Authority, Alvarez & Marsals, Tata Group, amongst others.

Shamik sits on the Governing Body of a state school and a further education college. He Chairs the Ward Panel on crime (a Met police initiative) and is a member of the Patient Partner Council at Barking, Havering, and Redbridge University Hospital Trust. Shamik is actively involved in wider community improvements, working closely with politicians, elected representatives, government agencies and the community.