

Healthy you, healthy baby

NHS

Blood and Transplant

Anaemia affects on average 24% of pregnancies and can cause more than just tiredness for you and baby.

It can impact baby's development

It can slow recovery postdelivery

It can increase the risk of requiring a blood transfusion

Feeling tired, lethargic, low energy and mood, increased breathlessness or fatigue on exertion?
Talk to your healthcare professional or midwife.

Patient Blood Management

