

Board People Committee

Terms of Reference

1. Purpose

The People Committee (the Committee) is established by the Board of NHSBT as a non-executive committee of the Board with powers and responsibilities delegated to it within the NHSBT Standing Orders and these Terms of Reference.

The purpose of the Committee is to support the Board in its responsibility to discharge its regulatory duties in respect of employee relations matters, to provide assurance on the board composition and organisational climate, and to approve recommendations for external recognition.

The Committee fulfils the role of the Remuneration and Terms of Service Committee described in EL(94)40 of the Code of Conduct and Accountability 2004.

The purpose of the Committee shall be delivered through the performance of the duties set out in section 5.

2. Composition

2.1. Membership

The Committee shall be appointed by the Board from amongst the Non-Executive Directors, one of whom shall be the Chair of the Committee.

The Committee shall consist of not less than three members, ~~one of whom shall be the Chair of the Authority.~~

At least one member of the Committee should have experience of HR strategy and services.

The Board may appoint Associate Non-Executive Directors or independent members of the Committee to fill any identified skills and experience or diversity gaps, however they shall not hold voting rights.

2.2. Committee Chair

The Committee will be chaired by one of its members. In the absence of the nominated Chair, another member of the Committee will chair the meeting.

2.3. Lead Executive

The lead Executive Director providing support to the Committee is the Chief People Officer.

2.4. Attendees

Only members of the Committee have a right to attend and vote at Committee meetings, however, subject to the approval of the Committee Chair, the meetings shall be open to attendance by any Board member.

The Deputy Chief Executive, ~~and~~ Chief People Officer and Director Plasma for Medicines will normally attend meetings and other NHSBT Directors or representatives of relevant directorates may be invited by the Chair of the Committee, to present to, or attend to contribute for specific items. Attendance by any non-members will be at the discretion of the Committee Chair.

The Chief Executive shall attend in relation to ESM Pay and bonus proposals, Executive Succession Planning and Talent Management, and such other subject matter as appropriate.

Parties external to NHSBT may also be invited by the Committee Chair to attend all, or part of a meeting, eg professional advisors/service providers, partners, regulators, etc. The Committee is authorised by the Board to secure the attendance of others with relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary.

The Committee Chair may ask any person in attendance who is not a member of the Committee to withdraw from a meeting to facilitate open and frank discussion of a particular matter.

2.5. Secretary

The ~~Corporate Governance Team Central Secretariat~~ managed by the Company Secretary will provide administrative secretariat support. Duties of the secretariat will include:

- Agreement of agenda with Chair and Lead Executive, including feedback from other attendees
- Collation and distribution of papers for meetings
- Drafting of minutes for agreement by Chair, Lead Executive and attendees
- Advising the Committee on pertinent areas and briefing the Chair as appropriate via the Chief People Officer.

3. Meeting Arrangements

3.1. Format

Meetings may be held in person, by telephone, video conferencing or in hybrid format.

3.2. Frequency

The Committee shall normally meet as frequently as it may determine to be necessary to complete its key tasks, with a minimum of four meetings times a year and further meetings called at the discretion of the Chair of the Committee.

Outside of the formal meeting programme, the Committee Chair will maintain a dialogue with key individuals and third parties, including the Board Chair, the Chief Executive, Executive Leads for relevant directorates and the Company Secretary.

3.3. Quorum and Decision Making

The quorum for meetings shall be two members.

A duly convened meeting of the Committee at which a quorum is present shall be competent to exercise all or any of the authorities, powers and discretions vested in or exercisable by the Committee. A meeting that is inquorate may proceed, however no decisions may be made, and the minutes should reflect this.

Decisions shall be determined by a majority of the votes of the members present and voting on the question. In the case of the number of votes for and against being equal, the Chair of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.

If all members agree, urgent matters arising between formal meetings can be dealt with by e-mail, telephone or videoconference, with the outcomes of such exchanges formally recorded in the minutes of the next full meeting.

3.4. Notice of Meetings

Meetings of the committee shall be called by the secretary of the committee at the request of the Committee Chair or any of its members.

Unless otherwise agreed, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, time and date together with an agenda and supporting papers shall in normal circumstances be circulated to each member of the Committee and any other person required to attend, no later than seven days before the date of the meeting.

3.5. Minutes

The Secretary shall minute the proceedings and decisions of all meetings of the Committee, including recording the names of members present and those in attendance.

Draft minutes will in normal circumstances be sent to the Executive Lead for the Committee within five working days of the meeting. The Executive Lead will review the draft within 5 working days, and a final draft will be sent to the Committee Chair within ten working days of the meeting. The draft minutes will be submitted for formal agreement at the next meeting.

The Committee will ensure the minutes are made available to the next private Board meeting. ~~In exceptional circumstances, where meeting content is highly confidential and/or sensitive and not appropriate for full minutes, the Chair and Lead Executive shall decide how to record and report this to the Board.~~

4. Declarations of Interest

All members and attendees of the Committee must declare any relevant actual, or potential, conflicts of interest at the commencement of any meeting. This includes financial interests, non-financial professional interests, non-financial personal interests and indirect interests. (See Conflicts of Interest Policy for guidance. The Company Secretary can provide advice and guidance on reporting declarations of interests.)

Members and attendees will be invited to declare any interests they might have in any issue arising at the meeting which might conflict with the business of the Committee.

~~All meetings shall have an allocated agenda item for declarations of interest, and these must be formally recorded. Neither the Chief Executive nor any NHSBT Director or manager shall be present during discussions in relation to their own remuneration, performance and terms of service.~~

The Chair of the Committee will determine if there is a conflict of interest such that the member and/or attendee will be required not to participate in a discussion. No member shall participate in decision making in relation to any matter for which they have an interest.

5. Delegated Authority, Duties and Responsibilities

5.1. Delegated Authority

- A statement of whether the Committee is satisfied that it has discharged its responsibilities.

The Committee shall also compile a short report on its activities to be included in NHSBT's Annual Report to describe the work of the Committee.

8 Authority

The Committee has the authority to request and review reports and assurances from management in order to undertake its duties and achieve its overall purpose.

The Committee is authorised by the Board to:

- obtain, at NHSBT's expense, reasonable external legal or other independent professional advice on any matter within its terms of reference (subject to budgets agreed by the Board), and liaising through the Company Secretary, in relation to whether such advice can be provided internally, or the best procurement of such advice.
- seek any information it requires, and/or to secure the attendance of others with the relevant experience and expertise if it considers this necessary in order to perform its duties.

9 Terms of Reference and Effectiveness Reviews

9.1 Terms of Reference

The Committee will review its Terms of Reference on an annual basis and make such recommendations to the Board as are required to take into account changes to laws or regulations together with organisational changes be they strategic, structural, technological or operational.

9.2 Committee Effectiveness

The Committee will, on an annual basis, review its work programme, performance and evaluate any support or development needs, and review its effectiveness, to include ~~ing its terms of reference~~ a gap analysis of its work during the year compared to the duties set out within the Terms of Reference, and consideration of the following:

- Membership, independence and objectivity
- Skills and experience
- Roles and responsibilities
- Communication and reporting
- Continual improvement.

and recommend any changes to the Board. The results of the effectiveness review and ~~Terms of Reference review~~ delegations review will be reported to the Board.

10 Other Matters

10.1 External and Internal Audit Access to Committee

Appropriate external and internal auditors, as agreed by the Board, shall have the right of direct access to the Committee for the purposes of auditing its work and effectiveness.

10.2 Resources

The Committee will have access to sufficient resources to carry out its duties, including access to the Company Secretary and the Corporate Governance Team, for assistance as required.

10.3 Training and Development

Members of the Committee shall be provided with appropriate and timely training, both in the form of an induction programme for new members and on an ongoing basis for all members. Training needs shall be identified through the annual skills and capability assessment, the Director appraisal process and through discussion with the Committee Chair.
